

Program
13th International Symposium – Bratislava, December 3rd, 2019
Hotel Bratislava, Seberíniho 9, 821 03 Bratislava

“Intelligence and Hybrid Threats“

Registration – 8:30 – 9:00 h

A. Symposium Opening – 9:00 h

- Initial welcome – ABSD chairman – Jaroslav Gofjár

- Topic introduction – State Secretary of the MoD Slovakia – Róbert Ondrejcsák

B. Presentations 9:30 – 11:00 h – moderated by Alexandra Janoušková

1. Marc ELLENBOGEN – former counsellor of the vice-president Al-Gore, and Gen Wesley Clark, president of Prague Society, USA
"A near impossible mission – Defining the roots of hybrid threats"
2. Karel RANDÁK – retired General, former Director of the ÚZSI (civil foreign intelligence service), Czech Republic
"Where there so called hybrid threats in the past already?"
3. Petr PAVEL – retired General, former Chairman of the NATO Military Committee
"What is the NATO perspective of the hybrid threats and what are the examples"

Coffee break: 11:00 – 11:30 h

4. Jan SCHNEIDER – Charta 77 signatory, security analyst and publicist, former member of the intelligence service, Czech Republic
"When a thief shouts: Catch a thief!"
5. Paul HURMUZ – retired General, security expert, former member of the military intelligence, Romania, former Deputy Director of the Intelligence Division, NATO
"The role and place of the intelligence and security organizations in dealing with the old and new hybrid challenges and threats"
6. Daniel MILO – security expert on hybrid threats, Globsec, Slovakia
"Is Slovakia ready for hybrid threats?"
7. Pavel MACKO – retired General, former Deputy Chief of General Staff, Slovakia, the highest positioned representant of the Slovak Armed Forces within the NATO structure, former Commander of the NATO Joint Forces Training Center (JFTC) in Bydgoszcz, Poland
"Three critical requirements for the effective intelligence in the digital era"

C. Discussion: 13:30 – 13:55

D. Closing remarks – ABSD chairman – Jaroslav Gofjár

Reception: 14:00 – 15:30 h